CANDIDATE SNAPSHOT

A highly experienced RPA developer with nine years in the tech industry, he has led automation initiatives with a strong focus on UiPath. As a technical lead, he architected scalable RPA solutions, built CI/CD pipelines, and managed infrastructure for over 50 robot endpoints. His leadership resulted in a £4 million annual work reduction through efficient automation.

With a background in full-stack development and a deep understanding of DevOps, Agile, and cloud technologies, he brings strategic vision, technical excellence, and team-building expertise to any role in automation and digital transformation.
